

Storied Objects

Each work that Christine creates is the only one of its kind, and has a highly individual story to tell about a very special person, event, or space.

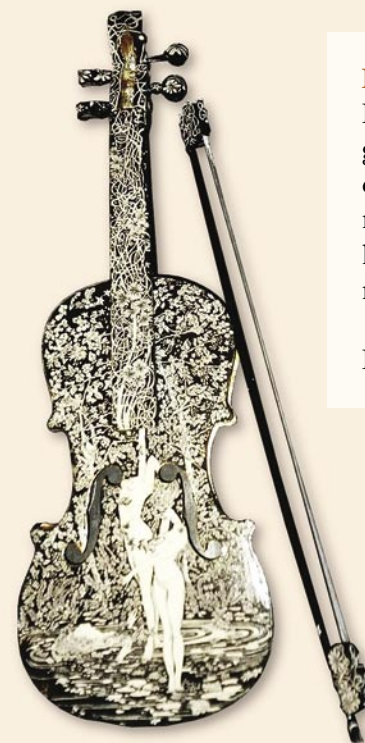

She creates:

- Gifts that tell a unique family story
- Presents that pay homage to the achievements of a friend or associate
- Decorative items transformed in tribute to your personal passions
- Company and diplomatic gifts
- Trinkets to complement your distinctive décor
- Graduation and off-to-college presents
- Designer and decorator requests

Regency Penwork Box, guardian of treasures for dragon-loving son departing for college

Bow(s) Art. Penwork and gold leaf. For exhibit at world-renowned concert hall. Water nymphs emerging (from Wagner's Ring cycle)

Here are a few of our commissions, and their stories.

Faux Mahogany Grandfather Box, given for 80th birthday of family patriarch, depicting all of his grandchildren through their vocations and avocations

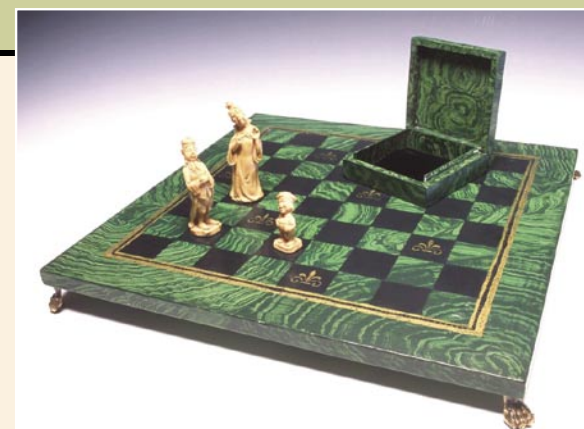

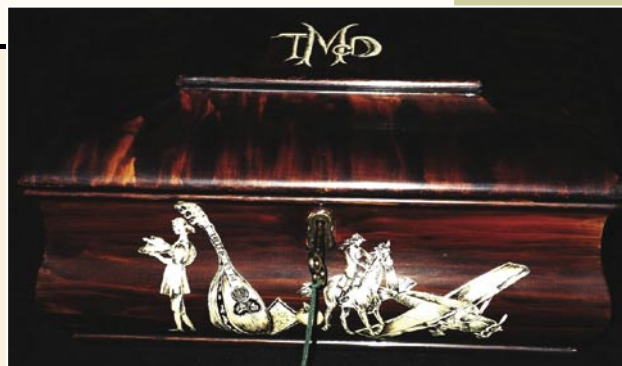

(Visible: cook, mandolin player, horseback rider, & airplane pilot)

Eggshell Lacquer Bowl to highlight art deco furniture

Personal Time. Working wall clocks for landmark birthdays, tailored to the recipient's hobbies, homes, profession—or obsession!

Malachite Chessboard, a gift to match emerald décor